

The Provost is Cutting Adjunct Pay by 20%

AND INCREASING LECTURER
WORKLOADS BY 33%

For everyone teaching English Composition, as part of the new round of budget cuts.

JOIN US on Tuesday, April 4 in the hallway outside the Division of Humanities & Arts offices (NAC 5/225) anytime between 8:45 and 2 for a GRADE-IN to show the Provost that this is UNACCEPTABLE.

A grade-in is a protest tactic used by teachers' unions in which teachers bring their "to be graded" piles and gather together to work in a visible place to raise awareness for workload and pay issues.

Faculty: bring your students!
Students: bring your classmates and your homework!
